

BRIGHSTONE VILLAGE SHOP

ISSUE 1

THE WIGHT PLACE FOR LOCAL PRODUCE!

01 DECEMBER 2010

Welcome to our first newsletter and thank you for your support. We, the Hollis family, have been managing The Village Shop for the past 34-years and hope to do so for many more. We continue to strive to meet your needs and hope that with this monthly newsletter we will be able to keep you up-to-date with developments and new services and products in the shop. We hope you enjoy our first issue and look forward to your feedback.

ready for collection in the shop; along with festive cheer, so why not avoid the mad dash of town and take advantage.

Mini-Market

For those who aren't sure what might take their fancy, samples and tastings will be on offer at our Christmas Mini-Market, 10th to 12th December so stop by to try before you buy!!

Hampers

This year we will also be putting together a range of Christmas hampers; the perfect present for any foodie lover or that person who has everything. Full details of the hampers on offer will be available in the shop.

Veg. Boxes

By popular request we will also be starting our veg. box scheme ready for the festive season so if you've got house guests arriving why not place an order for one of our large (£12) or small (£7.50) veg. boxes to see you through the week, containing everything for that roast dinner and midweek stew.

Whatever takes your fancy we will be happy to discuss your needs so stop in and let's talk Christmas!

New in-store;

As some of you may be aware we are now offering freshly-made filled rolls in the deli section of the shop. As well as our daily fresh bread from Market Bakery, we now also have 'Artisan' bread from The Island Bakers; based at Bembridge, each Saturday morning. Hand-made sourdoughs, focaccia, and ciabatta are just some of the breads available from the range baked fresh using local ingredients.
